

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Johnson Bridge and Tea.
The Johnsons of the red, white and blue were lavishly used in the tea for a beautifully appointed affair at which Mrs. J. H. Johnson and Mrs. Charles Johnson were hostesses this afternoon at the Fairmont Country Club. The large living room and room of the club were beautifully decorated with red, white and blue. Baskets of red, white and blue roses and blue delphiniums added to the attractiveness of the scheme. Fifteen tables were used during the early part of the afternoon and at four o'clock fifty or sixty guests came to the tea and to mingle with the Johnsons and other guests. The Johnsons are the prettiest of the Johnsons. Among the out of town guests present were Miss Hammond, of Pennsylvania, the guest of Mrs. Brett; Mrs. John of Baltimore, the guest of Mrs. R. Lyon; Mrs. Stuart Ely, of Pa., the guest of her mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hart; Mrs. W. J. McElhiney, of West Virginia, the guest of Mr. Howard W. Hart; and Mrs. Martha Duncan of Wichita, Kansas, the guest of Mrs. Powell. The hostesses were assisted in serving by a number of women.

Has Guest.

Returned from Convention.
Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Henry, who had attended the sessions of the Northern Baptist convention at Buffalo, N. Y., returned home. The Rev. W. J. Henry, daughter, Miss Ruth, who attended the convention, went to Toronto, Canada, where they are attending the National Baptist Young People's Union convention.

To Chicago.
Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ashcraft are leaving Sunday for Chicago, Ill., where they will attend the Elks' convention to be held there. Mrs. Ashcraft, who had been ill, is recovering this time.

Entertaining for Guest.
Mrs. Don Hewitt Blanks is entertaining this afternoon at her home on Vernon avenue at a bridge of attractive appointments with Miss Tyndal of St. Louis, the guest of Mrs. W. L. Mar, at Fairmont Farms as guest of honor. Six tables were set in playing and a salad lunch was served during the afternoon. The floor of the house was prettily decorated in large French baskets of pink flowers.

Tag Day.
Much interest is centering in "Tag Day" which will be held here on Saturday next as a benefit for Cook hospital. The affair is in charge of the Women's Hospital association, which has pledged to pay into the treasury of the hospital a certain amount of money and the money received will be turned into the hospital. A meeting of the tag captains who will be in charge of the affair was held this morning and the meeting was enthusiastic and all pledged themselves to work hard for the success of "Tag Day."

June Wedding.
Miss Zella Brown and Herbert V. Baxter were married at the home of the bride's parents, 827 Mt. Vernon avenue, Friday, June 25, by Rev. C. D. Robinson. A number of guests were present. Those from this city were C. A. McQueen and Mrs. W. J. McElhiney, and the bridesmaids were Misses of Pine Grove, William and wife, Gay Bailey and wife, and Miss Bailey of Baxter. Those Engagement Announced.

The engagement of Miss Ruth Henrietta Shaffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Shaffer of this city, and George Brown Morgan, of Buckhannon, was announced at an attractively appointed party at which Mrs. Clarence Bloom, the sister of the bride to be, was hostess at her home in the West End. The engagement of Miss Shaffer and Mr. Morgan will culminate in their marriage on July 14. Following a delightful evening spent with games and music the guests were invited to the dining room where they were served with refreshments. A bridal slipper ceremony was held and the names "Ruth and George" and the date of the marriage. Each guest was given a piece of the slipper and in this way the engagement was announced. Tiny slippers were used as place cards and bags of rice were given each guest as favors. The guests included the Misses Eunice and Martha Byer, Gladys Haas, Anna Frohert, Margaret Freichorn, Olive Neely, Beatrice Neely, Mae Hawkins, Clara Leaman, Mary Selter, Mrs. Roy J. Meyer, Mrs. F. M. Wittman, Mrs. J. F. Shaffer.

Hartley's Clothes for the Fourth

The Fourth of July offers a delightful opportunity this year to pack up a few duds and run away for the week end. Whether the country or a more formal resort is the goal, much depends on taking the necessary clothes.

The Summer Frock a Smart Necessity

Clever scheming may permit the omission of some bits of apparel from the wardrobe, but not the summer frock. From early morning on the golf course and on summer verandas, until late evening its sheerness and color are seen in smart frocks.

Nice to have three or four frocks of varying color and style. Their practical assets are not to be overlooked.

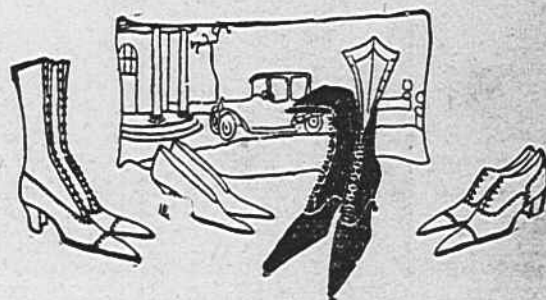

Voiles, Tissues, Organdies, Swisses, Gingham.

$4.50 to $29.50

Jersey Sports Suits Are Practical

For the business woman who likes to wear a suit even during the summer a Jersey Suit is a sheer delight. Made along simple tailored lines, belted and jacketed, these suits in plain colors or heather mixtures are a sensible solution of "What to Wear" because they do not muss or wrinkle, are genuinely good to look at and are very reasonable in price.

$19.75, $28.13 to $42.25

Cousins Shoes Have A Ceaseless Fascination For Every Woman

Somehow the comfort and style of these shoes are making a profound impression on women who buy shoes thoughtfully. The newer models with their grace and good looks are partly responsible, but the assurance of good values have a great deal to do with it.
